BARNESVILLE WATER UPDATE

TAKE A PLEDGE TO FIX A LEAK

EPA WaterSense promoted Fix a Leak Week from March 16 to 20, 2009, to remind Americans to check their plumbing fixtures and irrigation systems for leaks. While Fix a Leak Week is over, it's never too late to join the WaterSense campaign. Household water leaks rob homeowners of 12 percent of their water bill through problems such as worn-out toilet flappers, dripping faucets, and leaking valves.

Water and sewer costs from leaking toilets can really add up. Deteriorated flapper valves are the most common source of leaks. Over time, this inexpensive rubber part decays, or minerals build up on it. It's usually best to replace the whole rubber flapper—a relatively easy, inexpensive do-it-yourself project that pays for itself quickly!
