Proclamation by Barnesville Mayor Jason Rick
Firefighters and Emergency Personnel Appreciation Week
May 16, 2022 – May 20, 2022

WHEREAS, on May 18, 2022, Barnesville citizens will unite in support of Firefighters and Emergency Medical Personnel nationwide to promote National Emergency Medical Services Week; and

WHEREAS, citizens are urged to support Firefighters and Emergency Medical Technicians in a myriad of ways across Barnesville, from sending a card of support to their local fire department or EMS agency, sharing a positive story on social media about emergency personnel, to thanking emergency personnel they come in contact with; and

WHEREAS, emergency personnel play an integral part in Barnesville by protecting and serving the community, and they deserve our support; and

WHEREAS, the City of Barnesville is recognizing those in emergency service and the public service they provide to our communities; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jason Rick, Mayor of the City of Barnesville, hereby proclaim Friday, May 20, 2022, as Fire and Emergency Medical Services Appreciation Day in Barnesville, Minnesota,

FURTHER, LET IT BE RESOLVED, that May 16, 2022 – May 20, 2022, be proclaimed National Emergency Medical Services Week, and encourage all citizens to “Wear Red” on May 18, 2022, in support of Fire and Emergency Medical Personnel.
