Rules and Regulations

1. The planting season will start on May 1st (weather permitting) and all plots must be cleared by October 22nd.
2. If you decide not to use your plot, please notify Midwest Bank at 218-354-2704. There are no refunds on plot fees paid.
3. Gardeners are responsible for maintenance of their plot. If your plot is overgrown with weeds, you will receive a warning. If there is no action taken within one week, your plot may be mowed and reassigned.
4. There is a hose available for use. Please ensure the hose is put back neatly and water is turned off after use.
5. Gardeners will need to bring their own gardening tools. All tools need to be taken home each day.
6. Plots are to be used for vegetables and flowers. Growing trees, shrubs, or perennials is prohibited.
7. The garden shed is not for your personal use and is the property of the Barnesville Community Garden.
8. Only access your garden via the grass. Please do not walk into other gardens.
9. Please park along the street and walk to your plot. DO NOT DRIVE ON THE GRASS. Access garden via 2nd Ave SW.
10. Gardeners are responsible to dispose of their weeds. No compost disposal on site, but there is a composite pile located to the West of the city shop.
11. Use of herbicide sprays (weed killers) is not allowed.
- 12. Pets are not allowed in the garden area at any time.
13. Use of tobacco products or consumption of alcohol in the garden is not allowed.
